Banquet, Mass Honor Priest

Speeches from representatives of the city, parishioners, Newman Club, fellow clergymen and the Diocese of Amarillo highlighted a noon banquet Tuesday for the Rev. Leo E. Lavoie, pastor of St. Ann's Catholic Church.

The banquet, in honor of the 25th anniversary of the priest's ordination, followed a mass celebrated in the church Tuesday morning. The Silver Jubilee was attended by more than a score of priests of the diocese and other guests.

Master of Ceremonies for the banquet was the Very Rev. Msgr. Leroy T. Mathieson of the Chancery Office in Amarillo. The invocation was offered by the Most Rev. John L. Morkovsky, auxiliary bishop of the diocese.

Bob Bellah, representing the City of Canyon, spoke for the city and its citizens. Bud Hickman spoke for the parishioners and Judy Neslage of Pampa spoke for the Newman Club.

Hickman reviewed the history of St. Ann's church from its first mass celebrated in a private home to its present status. He said the church now has 249 parishioners from 60 families. The Rev. Lavoie has been pastor of the church since Jan. 16, 1957.

Rt. Rev. Msgr. John A. Steinlage, pastor of Sacred Heart Cathedral in Amarillo, spoke for the clergy of the diocese in congratulating the Rev. Lavoie. Bishop Morkovsky spoke for the diocese in the place of the Most Rev. Lawrence FitzSimon, bishop of the diocese.

The Rev. Lavoie told his feelings on the day of his Silver Jubilee and expressed his gratitude for the honors given him by his friends. The sermon for the mass was given by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. George W. King.

The Rev. Lavoie was ordained to priesthood by Bishop J. B. Peterson on Jan. 28, 1933, in St. Joseph Cathedral, Manchester, N. H.

Two Days Remain On School Census

With only two days remaining to complete the school census, parents of school-age children who have not been counted are being asked to contact Lee Foster, school tax assessor and collector, at his office in the court house.

Since the census rolls are used as the basis of state payments to the local school, every child who is not enrolled before Feb. 1 reduces the amount paid to the local district.

Any person who will be six years of age on or before Sept. 1 and who will not yet be 18 should be enrolled, whether they will be attending school or not. Even though a school-age person will not be attending school, he should be enrolled, Foster said. The local school is entitled to the money, and that money will help offset the cost of educating children who move into the community after Feb. 1.

Number 43

Poll Tax Sales Down in Dumps

Very few people in Randall County care whether or not they can vote during the coming year if the number of poll tax receipts issued is any indication. At closing time Tuesday, the tax office reported that only 2812 receipts had been issued through Saturday night.

The figures do not include any receipts for Monday and Tuesday, but indicate that the number of eligible voters will be no more than half the number in 1956, the last general election year. Last year, when only local elections were scheduled, there were 4766 poll tax receipts in the county. The 1956 total was 7573.

Only Thursday and Friday are left in which to pay the tax. Poll taxes may be paid between Oct. 1 and Jan. 31, but may not be paid after Jan. 31.

Elections scheduled this year are city election in Canyon, school board election in all school districts, more than half the county offices, state executive offices, legislators, a U. S. Congressman and a U. S. Senator.

Poll taxes are $1.75 per person and must be paid by every citizen between the ages of 21 and 60 who plans to vote in the year's elections. They may be paid at the tax office in Canyon, the tax substation in the 3800 block on Bowie and at the Amarillo Jaycee office in the Amarillo Building.

A husband may pay the poll tax for his wife, and vice versa. They may be paid by mail provided the letter reaches the Canyon tax office prior to midnight, Jan. 31. Those who mail in the payment must include the names of those who desire the receipts, the home address of each, age, race, sex, length of residence in city, county and state, occupation, whether native-born or naturalized, name or number of voting precinct and mailing address if different from the home address.

The seriousness of paying poll taxes cannot be over-emphasized, since the person without a valid receipt has no voice in his government.

Non-payment of poll taxes does not exempt citizens from jury duty.

1958 License Plates Go On Sale Saturday in County Tax Offices

Automobile and truck license plates will go on sale in the Randall County Tax Office in Canyon and the Amarillo sub-station Saturday, and must be purchased and displayed on vehicles prior to April 1.

Numbers for automobile plates in Randall County will be BD 775 to BD 9999 and BE 10 to BE 1374. The numbers will be split between the Canyon and Amarillo offices in this manner: Canyon will have BD 775 to BD 1974 and BE 10 to BE 1374; Amarillo have BD 1975 to BD 9999.

The plates this year will be the reverse of last year's coloring, with white numerals on a black background.

Cost of the plates will be 10 percent higher than last year, the first change in price in a number of years. The increase was authorized by the last session of the legislature to help in the highway construction program underway in the state.

Car owners purchasing tags will be required to present title papers and last year's license receipt before the tags will be issued.

The new diesel fee for 1958 will be 11 percent of the total license fee. Truck owners having diesel trucks are requested to report which trucks are dieselized when the tags are purchased.

Fire Destroys Wallace Home

Fire destroyed a farm home southeast of Canyon Monday afternoon.

The two-bedroom home, occupied at the time of the blaze by Mr. and Mrs. Doug Wallace and family, is owned by Harold V. Johnson, who could not be reached to give an estimate of the damage. The Wallaces were not at home when the fire was discovered.

The blaze was discovered by two telephone repairmen from Mid-Plains Telephone Co-operative who turned in the alarm. The repairmen were on their way to work on a telephone at the ranch.

Joined by neighbors, the repairmen saved furniture from the two bedrooms, bedding, clothing, a washing machine and a few other pieces of furniture.

The Canyon volunteer fire department answered the call, but was unable to get to the house before the fire was out of control. They prevented the fire from spreading to another house and a garage.

The Wallaces have five children, Gerald, 7, Darrell, 7, Judy, 4, Norma, 1, and Alma, 5 months. Wallace works for the Frying Pan Ranch.

chased. The license number series which go to Randall County are shared with several other counties. Potter County has BD 10 to BD 774; Roberts, Sherman, Bailey, Castro and Cochran counties have BE 1375 to BE 9999.

Jaycees Will Sell Lightbulbs for MOD

Canyon Jaycees will sell packaged light bulbs on Feb. 4 and 5 for the benefit of the March of Dimes.

The bulbs will be on sale in the downtown area, and the club will make a house-to-house canvass. The assortment of bulbs in the packages will be mostly 60 and 100 watts, according to Jaycee President Wayne Wirt.

Friday Deadline For Paving Project

Friday is the deadline for property owners in the 400 through 700 blocks of Eighth Avenue to participate in a paving program, City Secretary Andy Boggs said Tuesday.

The program includes paving the four blocks with two-courses and setting curb and gutter. Cost to property owners is $2.98 per front foot, and the entire cost of the project will be $10,029.24. The city is participating in the cost of the paving by about 28 per cent, or $2877.24.

Boggs said the property owners in those four blocks are not forced to join in the program, but that the city regulations on paving are that an entire block must be paved and any new paving must tie on to existing paving.

Board Members Have Tickets

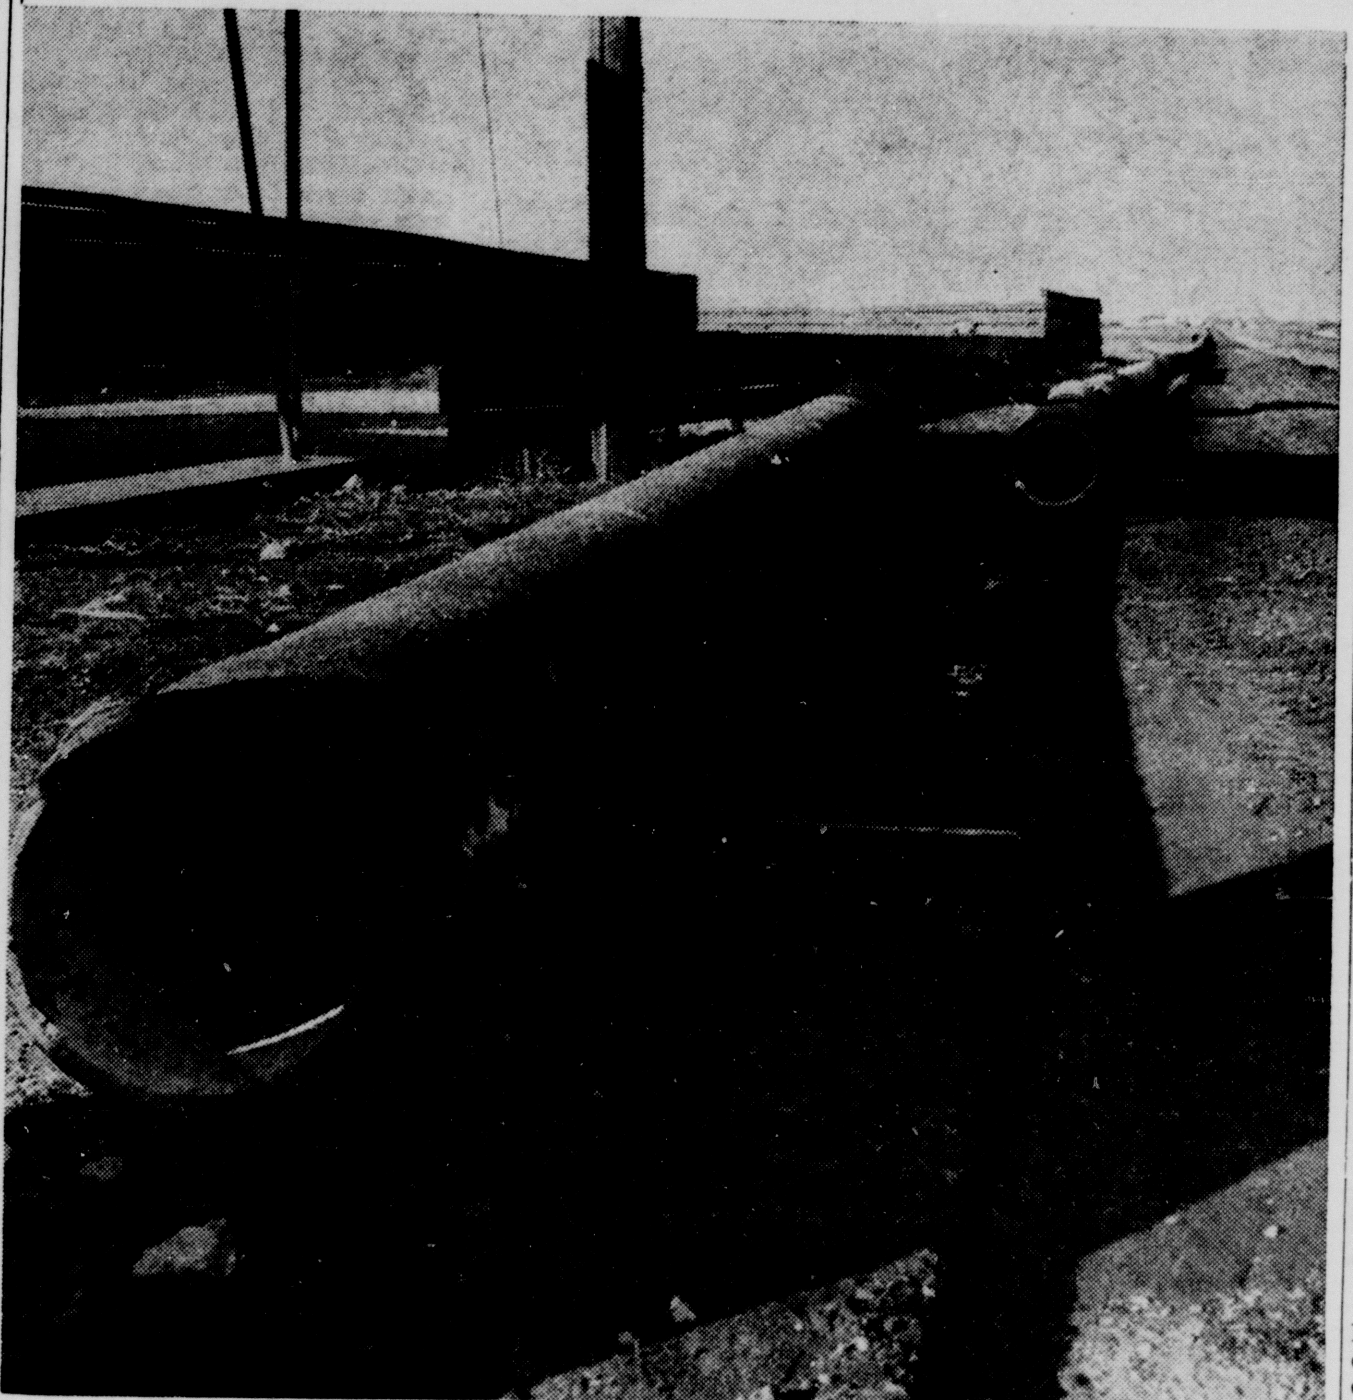

Reservations for the annual Canyon Chamber of Commerce banquet may be made with any of the members of the board of directors or at the chamber office.

The banquet will be Feb. 15 in the West Texas State cafeteria. Jack Lacy, manager of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce, will be guest speaker.

Board members having tickets are Frank Morgan, Don Standley, Jozach Byrd, J. D. Byrd, Dr. M. R. Callihan, Clarence Kincaid, Raymond Raillard, M. L. Sherrod, Riley Troth, Clay Cooper and Jerry LaGrone.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Samples visited relatives in Corpus Christi over the weekend.

Pipestring to the West

Eighteen-inch pipe is strung from the west end of Canyon along the highway to the west for more than three miles. The pipe will be buried to bring water to Canyon from the Mack Forrester watershed. Construction is expected to start after the first of February, providing the weather permits. The laying of the pipe and connecting the system with the city should take about 60 days. Three wells are completed and ready for pumping on the Forrester place.

Bradford Rites Held in California

Samuel Clinton Bradford, 70, husband of Mamie Conner Bradford, first white child born in Randall County, died Jan. 9 at his home in Pasadena, Calif.

Funeral services for the retired banker were held Jan. 13 in the Wee Kirk o' the Heather church at Forest Lawn Memorial Park in Glendale, Calif. Burial was in Forest Lawn.

Mrs. Bradford is the daughter of the late L. G. Connors, who founded Canyon in 1889.

Before his death, Mr. Bradford was associated with the California Bank and its predecessor, the Union National Bank, for 32 years. He retired from his job as bank vice-president a little more than a year before his death. He had been ill since June.

Survivors include his wife, Mamie, two daughters, two uncles and five grandchildren. The daughters are Mrs. Beckie Diven of Los Alamos, N. M., and Mrs. Evelyn Sargent of Garden Grove, Calif. The uncles are John and Ernest Bradford, both of Columbus, Ohio.

Observers Slate Training Meet

The Ground Observer Corps will have a meeting Feb. 3 at 7 p. m. in the home economics room at Canyon High School, with Capt. Thomas Hunter, assistant operations officer of the 688 Aircraft Control Warning Squadron at Amarillo Air Force Base, presenting the second of three training programs.

Scouts Hold Election To Take City, County Government for Day

A special early election will "fill" the county and city offices with Boy Scouts for a one-day government by Scouts.

Members of the two troops in Canyon will take over the county, city, Post Office and Chamber of Commerce on Feb. 8 in observance of National Boy Scout Week. In addition to those elected to office, other Scouts will work with the police department.

The Scout-day government is planned to educate the younger generation in the operation of local government, to let the community see Scouting in action, to raise the prestige of Scouting in the eyes of boys in the community and to raise money for the March of Dimes.

The program began Monday with a talk by city secretary Andy Boggs on the structure of city government and the procedures for filing for

Eagles Meet Tulia Here Tuesday In Second Round of District Play

Only four more games remain in the Canyon Eagle basketball schedule, and two of those are slated in the Canyon High gym. Tulia will play here Tuesday night and Olton will play here Feb. 7.

This Friday night, the Eagles go to Dalhart for the second game of the second round-robin in the district 1-AA schedule.

The Eagles lost to Dimmitt Friday in the last game of the first round-robin, and lost to Muleshoe Tuesday in the first game of the second.

Cecil Pitt was leading Eagle scorer in the Dimmitt game, which the Eagles lost 51-44. Pitt dumped in 19 points from four field goals and 11 free throws. Leonard Miller was second with nine points and A. L. Pruett third with eight.

Dana Wilbanks made three, Larry Brotherton two, Dory Funk two and Craig Hinger one.

Miller caught fire in the Muleshoe game, scoring 21 points, but the blaze was quelled by Okie Alexander and Bill Black, who scored 25 and 23 points respectively for the Mules. Muleshoe won 79 to 68.

Pruett picked up 14 points, Brotherton eight, Joe Albracht six, Wilbanks four, Pitt five, and Bob Winn and Hinger, one each.

The Amarillo district reached 85.7 per cent of its quota and the statewide quota was 85.8 per cent completed.

Bountiful Replacement

Following the fire last week which destroyed the home where the P. L. Findley family was living, citizens of Canyon donated nearly a half truckload of clothing, offered furniture and fixtures, and at least two different persons raised money for the family. The family moved to Amarillo following the fire.

Secrets from the People

The committee for the Advancement of Freedom of Information of Sigma Delta Chi, a professional journalism fraternity, has issued a report of investigation of governmental secrecy during the past few years. Included in the report are 93 specific instances of censorship by the executive branch of the federal government.

The instances include censorship of information requested by newspapers, radio and television, private citizens and Congressional committees. Federal censorship has even touched The Canyon News. In an effort to see if enough revenue could be obtained from the operation of Buffalo Lake to pay for maintenance and capital improvements we asked Congressman Walter Rogers to help get the information.

He tried, then sent a copy of a letter from the Department of Agriculture. To wit, "Our letter did not provide information on recreation area income. We are sorry that at the time our letter was written to you we had not reviewed the Administrative Regulations of the Department of Agriculture regarding the furnishing of information of the kind requested. We have now done so and find that these regulations prohibit the furnishing of information given to us in confidence by a licensee or permittee, or developing out of a contractual relationship, except to the person who originally supplied the information, or under compulsory legal process."

In other words, the Congress and private citizens are prohibited from knowing whether or not an operation of the Department of Agriculture is making or losing money. Since we weren't interested in the net profit of Roy Childers, the concessionaire at Buffalo, but only in the gross volume of business and the costs of capital improvements and maintenance, we can't see how the Department would be breaking any regulations.

However, Congressman Rogers said he would keep trying to get the information. Apparently he has been unsuccessful to date, and after reading the Sigma Delta Chi report, we imagine he will continue to be unsuccessful.

Here are some of the 93 instances of censorship submitted in the Sigma Delta Chi report. See for yourself how government bureaucracy is cheating you of your rights and privileges.

1. Department of Defense experts, testifying before the House Government Information subcommittee, stated that "more than a million" Federal employees are classifying security information, and that this classification is "running at a higher rate today" than during World War II. . . . If 1,000,000 Americans know our security secrets, it is doubtful if these will be withheld from the enemy; and, the government employee being a human being, that information which is "leaked" usually is slanted and no doubt is responsible for the general confusion which characterizes American government today.

2. The Army Intelligence Division declined clearance of a book by Lt. Col. Robert B. Rigg on the history of U. S. Army Intelligence, even though he offered to limit it to the intelligence operations of General Washington, based on material discovered in 1921. This is a perfect case of the ridiculous.

3. Pictures of plush furnishings inside military transport planes, requested by Rep. Daniel J. Flood, were stamped "secret" and then even the Congressman's letter of request was stamped "secret." Rep. Flood said: "It appears to me that this classification is designed to protect bureaucrats from embarrassment and not to protect genuine military secrets from potential enemies of the country."

4. Numerous reporters, representing wire services, daily newspapers and magazines, have asked the Department of Defense for permission to print pictures showing the outside shape of an A-bomb. The reporters were not asking for release of Department of Defense pictures. They were asking for approval to publish pictures which they had taken of the bomb displayed in public places. Although the "shape" of the bomb is not classified because it must be used by thousands of Air Force people for training purposes, all requests to show the public pictures of what billions of tax dollars are spent on are refused. At one time, the Department of Defense displayed the shape in a glass case in the Pentagon. The final reason given, for instance, is, in effect, that this information is restricted to prevent embarrassment or controversy.

5. As an example of bureaucratic confusion, the Department of Labor censored statistics on the Armed Services purchases of peanut butter on the grounds that clever enemy officials could deduce from them the number of men in our Armed Services. At the same time, the Department of Defense was issuing monthly reports on the totals of Armed Services personnel.

6. The Pentagon has affixed its "for military use only" classification to official U. S. weather data. The Soviet ambassador (or anyone else) can telephone the Department of Defense and ask for Extension 79355. Whereupon, a recording automatically gives the latest 24-hour weather forecast from nearby Bolling Air Force Base. This automatic recording concludes as follows: "This information is for military use only and dissemination to the public is not authorized."

7. A mimeographed release of Secretary of Defense Wilson's press conference of April 12, 1955, carried the following notation stamped at the top: "Not for General Distribution." This illustrates the stamp-happy attitude in the Pentagon.

8. Treavor Gardner, former Assistant Secretary of the Air Force, prepared an article on ballistic missiles based solely upon material which he gleaned from high-school textbooks, which included the classroom formulae for determining arc speed, the amount of thrust needed for desired range and the strength of the base platform needed to withstand this thrust. He sent it to the Security Review Office for clearance. Whereupon, the Security Reviewing people "blew their tops," charged the article contained "top secret" information and refused clearance.

9. Various underlings of the U. S. Post Office Department denied to the Martinsville (Va.) Bulletin the terms of a lease of a new post office at Fieldale, Virginia, on the grounds that this is a "confidential matter." After long delay and on direct protests from national editorial freedom of information committees Postmaster General Summerfield finally released this information.

10. Various underlings of the U. S. Department of Agriculture denied to the Aberdeen (Miss.) Examiner the names of Mississippi farmers who were paid not to plant cotton. This is characteristic of all dealings between the press and the Department of Agriculture involving release of information on expenditure of about $5 billion of the American taxpayers' funds. In the long controversy with the Tampa Tribune over release of soil subsidy payments in Florida, Secretary Benson pleaded this was a violation of "privacy" between the government and the recipients of the subsidies.

11. On Aug. 20, 1956, Administrator Franklin G. Fleete (of the General Services Administration) stated in an official letter that news photographers are not required to get prior consent from custodians to take pictures in public, non-security areas of Federal buildings. Yet on June 13, 1957, Deputy Marshal Atha A. Knight confiscated the camera of New Photographer W. C. Shoemaker of the Jackson (Miss.) Daily News for taking a picture in the public corridor of the Jackson Federal building. The camera was not returned until the Jackson Daily News Editor, Frederick Sullens, and others personally lodged strong protests with Federal officials.

12. After stories by Clark Mollenhoff in the Des Moines Register and Tribune, and subsequent inquiry by the House subcommittee on Government Information, the Department of Treasury finally agreed to make public out-of-court settlements of fines in cases involving the refilling of liquor bottles, but declined, on the grounds of technicalities of the law, to make public similar settlements in cases involving the watering of whiskey and other minor offenses.

13. Assistant Secretary of Defense Robert T. Ross, in an official ruling, stated that only those persons with a "legitimate interest" are entitled to know where the location of military bases where liquor is sold by the bottle. His letter containing the ruling specifically mentioned wholesale liquor dealers, but it implied that a member of the Women's Christian Temperance Union would be denied the information on the grounds of a lack of "legitimate interest."

By VERN SANFORD

Ever build a brush cover in your favorite fishing lake? Right now is just about the best time of the year to do it.

If you like crappie or bream fishing, then a brush cover has a great deal to offer.

Biologists are agreed that a good brush cover offers a definite advantage in catching fish. And a good one can be built in a couple of hours. It is hard work, however, especially if you are a desk man.

Generally brush covers don't work too well in a running stream. They must be firmly anchored. In relatively still lakes they can be tied down with heavy rocks. However, if they can be built around an old tree trunk it is even better.

To build a brush shelter you'll need a sharp axe, a pair of pliers, and plenty of bailing wire. A good tow-rope will be helpful too. It is best to work with two boats, or a boat and some type of barge or raft.

The process of building the shelter is in itself relatively simple. Cut an armful of brush, such as willow, tie it together, and attach a stone so that it will sink to the bottom of the lake. Select a suitable spot where the shelter will not be a hazard to navigation, or get in the way of deep trollers.

It doesn't have to be too far from shore. At least a dozen large bundles of brush should be transported to the spot. Some of it should consist of fair-sized brush, such as mesquite trees.

In lowering the brush into the water, it is well that the brush be stacked, so that it will be in a pile at the bottom of the lake. A brush shelter a dozen feet around and some five or six feet through is ideal.

Some builders find it profitable also to anchor a bale of alfalfa hay in the center of the pile.

To be most effective the brush should not be matted together. Fish must be able to swim around freely among the branches. At the same time, some shelter builders prefer a brush pile that big fish cannot get into. . . . one that furnishes a refuge for smaller fish.

When big fish chase the little ones into the brush pile, they'll hang around nearby. That's a pretty good time to lower a minnow in the vicinity. For that reason the perimeter should be well marked. Plenty of hooks can be lost fishing in brush shelters, if its bounds are not known.

Some fishermen use poultry netting to hold the brush together. In that event the entire project must be completed on land and then towed to its resting place.

We once heard of a fisherman who made an unusual, yet ideal, shelter in a lake that had just been lowered. He found a couple of old outhouses, filled them with heavy brush, then hauled them to a spot that would be just the right depth when the lake was re-filled. There he anchored them down to stay. They were left flat on their sides, with the door open.

Needless to say, he had an ideal cover for fishing and caught more than his share of crappie and bream.

Another good plan is to build the shelter directly under the end of the boat dock or pier. In this instance it is necessary to use heavy wire to keep the brush from washing out, and to keep hooks from snagging.

Anyway, now is a good time to build you a brush shelter. Just be careful where you cut your brush and where you put it. Do the job right and you'll have a good fishing spot.

What About the Man Overboard? Ever so often I wonder just what I'd do if a sudden and wholly unexpected need for a life preserver existed. This thought hits me whether I'm just plain fishing or pleasure-boating. And I'm not afraid of the water either.

Fact of the matter is, my concern is over what I'd be able to do to help someone else. Chances are I'd be paralyzed with fear. Apparently that's why I always carry a surplus of buoyant cushions, in addition to the familiar old-style, round shaped life preserver, with a long rope attached.

In my book you can't overdo the safety angle. The law requires one approved life preserver for every passenger in your boat. Don't forget it. Better yet, see to it that your guests wear life preservers. Insist that children do. The wise outdoorsman will never take a chance, especially on or near rough waters.

Learning to Cast

To spin cast or bait cast with accuracy takes practice. An old-timer's method of mastering the trick is to place an empty beer can under the casting arm, then practicing casting without dropping the can. This makes it necessary to use only the wrist for action which is the secret of successful casting.

And, by the way — if you have trouble dis-assembling your casting rod, at the end of a day of fishing, here's an idea. Next time you get ready to put your gear together, wipe the male ferrule against your nose a few times, rolling the ferrule over and over as you rub. That will put a base of oil from your skin onto the ferrule and make the connection easy to assemble, and most important of all, easy to dis-assemble.

Slick trick. And it works!

A small boy thinks his father knows everything and it is a never-to-be forgotten moment when a son is able to tell his dad something that he didn't know.

When my father and I got off the train at Carbon we were met by a son of the man we were going to visit — a doctor who lived in the country.

At the farm, the boys showed me around and one of the points of interest they pointed out was a pond, as we called it back in Arkansas—but they referred to it as a tank.

Next summer my father and I were traveling through the South Texas ranch country in a hack for the benefit of my father's health. He was told that a good camping place for noon would be at a tank.

Around noon, he remarked "I don't see any tank in sight" and I realized that he was looking for a steel or wooden tower, so it was with pride that I pointed to a pond and said, "There it is; they call that a tank in Texas."

Pay your poll tax! Pay your poll tax! Pay your poll tax!

That's the cry from all corners as individuals and groups begin their campaigns for support in the upcoming elections.

AFL-CIO and strong labor committees are making a vigorous drive to get union members to pay the $1.75 right-to-vote tax, and become eligible to put labor in the saddle in Texas government.

Gov. Price Daniel is urging all Texans to get that poll tax receipt now, before the Jan. 31 deadline.

Says the Governor, "Bad public officials are elected by good citizens who do not vote. I urge every Texan who loves this State and believes in majority rule to pay his poll tax and take an active part this year in the fight for constitutional government of, by and for the people." He emphasized that "minority groups should not be allowed to take over Texas."

Also busy contacting eligible voters are the state Democratic Executive Committee, headed by Jim Lindsey of Tarkana and Jake Pickle of Austin.

Equally active is the DOT, whose chief spokesman is Mrs. Frankie Randolph of Houston. Aiding her are Alex Dickie of Denton, Creekmore Fath of Austin, AFL-CIO heads, and NAACP leaders.

"It looks like a country folks-big city battle," said one observer. "With labor determined to swing the big cities, the final decision may rest in the hands of the multitude of smaller Texas towns and the rural folks. Usually they can be depended upon to vote, rain or shine."

Politicking Is On

By tradition, the opening of the red bud in East Texas is a sort of starting gun for politicking.

Some seasoned campaigners regard an announcement before red bud time as a farmer would look on planting before the last frost. But for politicking or farming, there has to be some fence mending, tool sharpening, seed buying and ground ploughing before planting time.

Hence, this January, though the air is still frosty, Texas politicians are preparing the ground for a hoped-for harvest of votes next summer. In Austin every move by a person in public life is interpreted as tool sharpening.

These events in the news are regarded as part of the pre-campaign cultivation.

Integrity and Economy

Integrity and economy in state departments will be emphasized in 1958, said Gov. Price Daniel in a speech kicking off his second year as chief executive — and the year in which he is expected to seek re-election.

Speaking to some 200 state officials, Daniel asked them to be responsible in their departments for strict compliance with reform laws passed last year. He said two types of people can undermine public confidence in Texas' 56,000 officials and employees — a "very few" wrongdoers and "self-seeking demagogues" who capitalize on the scandals.

He's not ready to sing bankruptcy blues, said the governor, referring to predictions that the state treasury would be in the red by 1959. Nor is he yet convinced, he said, that new taxes will be necessary next year.

But he urged department heads to keep a sharp eye on expenses and offered services of his budget staff to officials needing help in dollar stretching.

Democratic Party Control

Democratic Party control is expected to be a hotter issue this year than most campaigns for Capitol posts.

Stage is set for the first round of customary shin-kicking and name-calling at the State Democratic Executive Committee meeting here Feb. 1. SDEC is largely made up of conservatives favorable to Governor Daniel. Their critics and opponents are the Democrats of Texas, a liberal group which contends its partisans were in the majority at the last state convention, but were unfairly squeezed out of party posts.

DOT has drawn up a proposed "code of ethics" which, it says, will prevent any fast shuffles at future conventions. At the Feb. 1 meeting DOT representatives will urge the Executive Committee to adopt the code.

Battling the Bars

More housing, more paroles, more industries are recommended by the Board of Corrections to relieve "a potentially explosive situation" in Texas prisons.

Board said it will probably ask the next Legislature for $7,500,000 housing appropriation. Mgr. O. B. Ellis' report to the board on prison "rumbling" said that with the inmate population at 10,500, at least 75 per cent have to be crammed into "tanks" (one-room barracks) with 400 sleeping on the floor.

Board also urged speed in getting into operation the paid parole supervisor program, authorized by last Legislature. Supervision system is designed to permit more paroles. About one-third the required number of supervisors has been hired so far.

Federal government threw a monkey wrench into prison operations by cutting back on the prison farms' cotton acreage, said the governing board. It said more work opportunities for prisoners must be developed.

Golden Age Aids

Ways to improve the outlook for Texas' older citizens are being sought by a 15-member committee of legislators and private citizens. Sen. Crawford Martin of Hillsboro was named chairman at the first meeting of the panel.

It's not "just an old age pension committee," said Martin.

What's the right policy? Who can you believe?

For the best solution to your insurance problems

You are wise, too, if he is an independent agent.

It'll consider such sticky problems as the number of aged persons in mental institutions because no one knows what else to do with them. Also the difficulty oldsters have finding employment even with valuable training and experience.

Percentage of "over 65's" in Texas population has doubled in the past 50 years.

Everybody Can Appoint

Who has the right to appoint the attorney to handle affairs of an insurance company in receivership probably will continue to be a source of controversy.

But Renne Allred Jr., whose right to that post had been contested, can keep his job as the result of a Supreme Court ruling.

At issue was whether the Board of Insurance or court handling the receivership should name the attorney. Allred was appointed by a local district court.

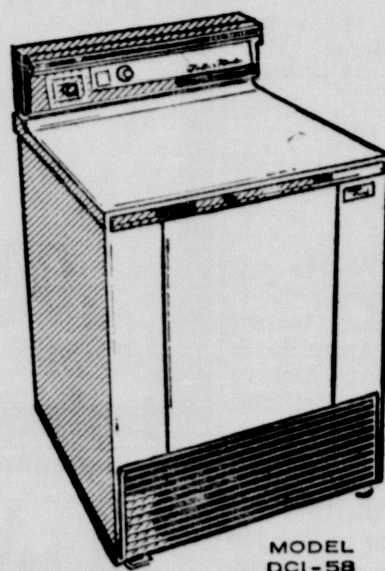

High court said, in effect, the board has first appointive power, but the court can step in where necessary.

Boy Scout Troop 66 spent Jan. 24 and 25 at Palo Duro State Park on an overnight camp.

The 25 boys and one leader camped below the fifth crossing in the park, and the weather was perfect for camping.

Junior Assistant Scoutmasters Craig Hinger, Larry Brotherton and Roy Harris were in charge of the program for the camp. Nature study and work on second and first class advancement were the main topics for work on Saturday.

Boys attending the camp were Robert Hutton, Brad Gough, Wayne Lindsey, Marvin Hutton, Bill Jar-nagin, Billy Walker, Steve Burgess, Elo Myers, Tim White, George Cox, Ralph Kuehn, Stephen Greiner, Gary Antrim, Mike Calliham, Bill Phillips, Bobby Haggard, Harry Lisle, Ronnie Harris, Larry Holman, Wallace Busted, Neal Lemmons and Davis Price.

Leader for the camp was Raymond Haddock. Another camp for the troop is planned for Feb. 14 and 15.

A shower honoring Sue Reynolds, bride-elect of Jack Collier of Happy, was held on Jan. 17 in the home of Mrs. Lynn Blewett, 2401 Eleventh Avenue.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Blewett, the hostess, Mrs. W. T. Reynolds, mother of the bride-elect, Miss Reynolds, and Mrs. V. E. Collier, mother of the groom-to-be. Miss Reynolds and Collier will be married Feb. 1 in the Calvary Baptist Church.

Mrs. Keith Poole poured the punch. Joyce Early registered the guests, and Ann Trench showed gifts.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. Cecil Waters, Mrs. Aaron Mann, Mrs. Keith Poole, Mrs. Travis Payne Sr., Mrs. L. C. Ruthart, Mrs. Arlen Ruthart, Mrs. Ervin Shugart, Mrs. O. C. Free, Mrs. Russell Thompson, and Mrs. Alfred Bellah.

NEWS LETTER

FROM CONGRESSMAN WALTER ROGERS OF THE 18TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

Second Session, 85th Congress
Most of the congressional committees have commenced hearings on one or more important pieces of legislation. Those that have not commenced these hearings are making preparation for extensive activities within the next few weeks.

The Congress has already acted on an authorization for the expenditure of over half a billion dollars for stepped up missile activities.

When Congress first met there seemed to be little chance of any farm legislation at this time unless the several segments of the farm bloc could get together. Getting together on the part of these several segments seemed possible but not very probable.

However, during the past two weeks there has been a marked change in the attitude of many. This was due largely to the activities and work of the Executive Committee of the National Conference of Commodity Organizations which met in Kansas City. It proved that open discussion sometimes provides answers to problems that seem most difficult of solution.

A bill has already been prepared which I feel will meet with the approval of most segments of the grain groups. We hope to see hearings started on this measure within the near future.

There will be a number of controversial activities concerning cotton. These will be most important, because the outcome of these controversies during this session of Congress could well determine the policy to be followed for the next several years concerning cotton. The small cotton farmers, especially in the dry land areas, have been hit and hit hard. This means that all businesses in those areas have felt these hardships.

The President's message concerning agriculture was received with mixed emotions. Very few feel that it provides any sort of an answer to the farm problem, insofar as farmers themselves are concerned. My daily mail brings in many letters setting forth the trials and tribulations now suffered by the farm people.

Until there is an awakening to the fact that these farm people should be of first concern in any farm program, there will continue to be hardships and difficulties on the family-size farms. Forcing these small farmers off the farms and into the cities will create more problems than it will solve.

Subcommittees of the Committee on Agriculture are already meeting, and I hope that we can move forward with some legislation that will bring about proper administration of some of the present farm laws, as well as make some changes necessary in carrying out a sound program. The policies of the Commodity Credit Corporation with reference to loans on cotton classed as wasty and barksy will be looked into with searching scrutiny.

The policies followed by Commodity Credit on this subject are such that they could be used to discriminate as between individual cotton growers. The farm credit system will also be thoroughly investigated. The credit situation faced by many small farmers will result in their being forced off these farms in a matter of a few years.

The Senate Committee on Agriculture and Forestry heard Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson on the proposed farm program Jan. 17.

Other committee activities in Washington included the hearings that have been commenced on subscription television. This is commonly called pay television. It could easily be one of the top controversial issues on the domestic front this year. Every committee having to do with scientific research is busily engaged in working out a program that will be most effective in bringing early results.

The Chairman of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy has announced that he is appointing a special subcommittee on Outer Space Propulsion to consider means of accelerating U. S. efforts in this field. Senator Anderson of New Mexico will be Chairman. Other new members are to be named.

Amity Club Meets At Harden Home

The Amity Club met in the home of Mrs. W. H. Harden Jan. 17 with Mrs. T. T. Fain, Mrs. R. H. Long and Mrs. J. C. Dowd as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Long and Mrs. Dowd read some interesting articles and Mrs. Fain conducted the Bible game.

Refreshments of apple pie, whipped cream, nuts, coffee and tea were served to Mrs. Duckworth and Mrs. I. M. Steen, guests; Mrs. Pennie Cox, Mrs. W. T. Davis, Mrs. J. H. Wright, Mrs. R. E. Gill, Mrs. Mary Burtz, Mrs. W. I. Wester, Mrs. Henry Cone, Mrs. T. W. Henderson, members.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. C. I. Danner Feb. 21 at 2:30 p. m.

Book Club Begins Study of UN

Darhula Walker presented the first of a series of studies on the United Nations at the regular meeting of the Woman's Book Club Jan. 15 in the Panhandle-Plains Museum.

To create atmosphere, Miss Walker had a colorful display of flags from the 82 countries represented in the assembly and replicas of the UN buildings.

Miss Walker spoke on "The United Nations: Its purposes and organizations." She also read a paper prepared by Mrs. A. A. Clark on "The significance of the United Nations to the United States."

Edna Graham, in reporting on the library, stated that approximately 40 books had been presented to the county library by the club this year.

The names of Mrs. Mary Sligar and Mrs. Bob Wear were presented to the club to be considered for the library board.

Mrs. Michael Morris extended an invitation to the club to attend the game night sponsored by the Junior Woman's Book Club at the American Legion Hall Jan. 25.

The next meeting, Jan. 29, will continue study of the United Nations with Mrs. S. H. Condon and Mrs. T. B. McCarter presenting the program.

Pass the Peas, February's Cheapest

COLLEGE STATION — Canned and frozen peas take the spotlight as the featured food on the U. S. Department of Agriculture's February plentiful foods list for this area.

Here's why. The latest inventory of the Agricultural Marketing Service shows that stocks of canned green peas are 7 million cases larger than a year ago. Stocks of frozen peas run 16½ million pounds more than a year ago.

Other vegetables on the plentiful list are canned and frozen corn and potatoes. Growers' prices of potatoes are below those of last year in most western producing areas, while canned and frozen corn stocks are heavy enough to rate a spot on the list.

Since February usually marks the time when the fall pig crop starts to market, pork takes the featured spot at meat counters. The fall pig crop is 2% larger than last year.

Milk continues in heavy supply as production stands at record levels, increasing seasonally in February.

Apples and dried prunes are the only fruits listed as plentiful for February. Other plentiful include peanuts and peanut products and filberts.

USDA determines what's plentiful every month by a survey of major food suppliers in this area.

Canyon Club Meets In Dean Cook Home

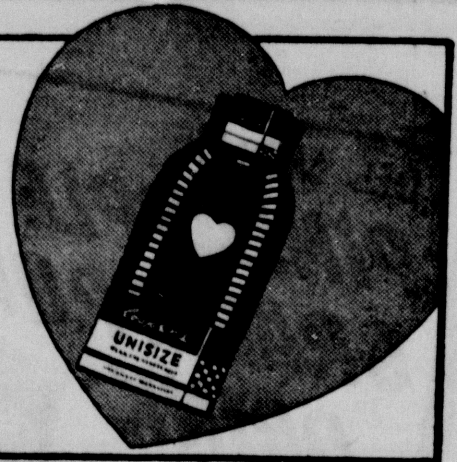

The Canyon Home Demonstration Club met Jan. 17 in the home of Mrs. Dean Cook. Mrs. Mona Hildreth, county home demonstration agent, demonstrated sewing knit and nap fabrics.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Lawrence Hunnicutt, Mrs. Clyde Thomas, Mrs. Gerald Findley, Mrs. Glenn Haynes, Mrs. Jack Barnard, Mrs. D. S. Owens, Mrs. Marion Higdon, Mrs. Bill Money, Mrs. Harold Woolsey, Mrs. Marion Williams, Mrs. Bill Wilson, Mrs. Shep Townsend, Mrs. Luke Miller, Mrs. E. L. Mind Your Manners

Whatever happened to chivalry? Is it dead?

During all the hurrying and pushing which goes on between classes and at noon in CHS halls chivalry seems to have somehow been shoved aside.

We students should never for one minute lose sight of our ideals or chivalry, or manners, since other impressions of us are based on our manners and our behavior.

Our manners include such things as the way we dress, our grooming, our eating habits in the cafeteria and the way we act in public.

Personality, politeness, friendliness and cheerfulness are three other qualities closely related to our manners and often used as a standard for judging us.

Perhaps the most important factor in one's foundation of good manners is consideration for others. If one can attain a better understanding and a well developed consideration of others he is well on the road to good manners besides providing for himself a better chance for accomplishing many other goals throughout life.

There are still other numerous things which characterize a well-mannered person. For example, how often do you stop to compliment others on their dress or on their accomplishments? Are you courteous at all times and especially if you are a boy, do you perform the common courtesies for the girls?

Think about these things and apply them to your daily lives and help CHS to become a more pleasant and enjoyable school by keeping chivalry alive.

Serve Your School

To become a success in life you must be willing to give the best kind of service which you know how to give.

There are many qualities which go into the making of the attitude of service. Service means to give aid anytime you are called upon. It includes willingness to sacrifice personal gain for the good of the greatest number of people. It also means being loyal and trustworthy to our fellow man.

There are still other things which describe and explain service, as the giving of your time, effort, abilities, talents and ideals for a worthy cause. Service is useless unless it is given for right things.

There are many organizations in our school which one may give his service if any degree of success is to be achieved.

Because certain individuals within these organizations were willing to give their time and efforts to practice the band and choir have achieved considerable recognition this year. The band had played for the football and basketball games and six of its members made All-Regional. The choir has appeared before many community and school functions, and three of its members made the All-State Choir.

The benefits of service are many so why don't you "join in the services" of your school, community and country and assure for yourself and your children a better world in which to live.

All Gone Feeling

Recently Lloyd Mann was selected for the All-State Choir. Since then he and two others have been receiving instructions through the mail.

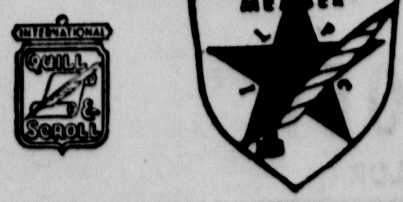

The other day Lloyd received a letter from the All-State Choir sponsors. He was filled with anxiety and curiosity over the letter and hurried to tear it open. What do you think he found in the envelope? A blank sheet of paper.

At first he didn't know whether the letter had been written in invisible ink or what. Later he found out that the letters had been mimeographed and one of the sheets had not printed.

Band, Choir in Combined Concert; Array of Musical Talent Is Assured

Combining instrumental and vocal talent, the CHS band and choir will join forces to present what promises to be an entertaining musical concert at 7:30 p. m. Jan. 30 in the high school auditorium.

An array of unusually outstanding musical makers will be participating in the concert. This will include six band members who won places on the All-Regional Band recently and three choir members who made the All-State Choir besides many other gifted musicians who were not quite so fortunate.

The program has been arranged so that the choir will sing first, then the band will play, and finally the band and choir will work together to present two numbers to finish the program.

Directed by Miss Ada V. Clark, the choir will sing the following selections: "Alleluia" by Wagner, "Night Song" by Harley, "I Am a Poor Wayfaring Stranger," an American spiritual, "Soon-Ah Will Be Done," another spiritual, and "We'll Go a Long, Long Way Together" by Fragna and Kennedy. Also, the choir will sing in Latin, "Ava Maria" by Rachmaninoff.

Conducted by Herman Demus, CHS band director, the band will play "March El Capitan" by Sousa, "Overture Eroica" by Beethoven and arranged by Skornicka, "The Three B's" arranged by Erickson from Bach's "Gavotte," Brahms' "Intermezzo" and Beethoven's "Bagatelle" and "Highlights from the King and I" arranged by Herfurth.

Larry Sparks, student teacher with the band during the first semester, will conduct the band in a special number called "Be-guine Festival" arranged by Osser.

To conclude the program the band and choir together will present "The Happy Wanderer" by Moller and "Freedom Ring" with the arrangement by Bennett.

Local FTA Gives Television Panel

"Teaching as a Career," which was discussed by six CHS students on the Nick Reyes' TV "Teen Time," brought to light many of the opportunities and advancements offered in this field.

Barbara Myers discussed the different types of teaching such as classroom teaching in all levels from kindergarten on through college, teaching the handicapped, and tutoring.

Jimmie Lou Hiltbrunner told of the satisfactions of a teacher such as helping a student achieve the skills and use the subject matter which he has mastered, or seeing a lonely child blossom into a new personality.

Kenneth Engle traced the different advances which teaching can make. One of the things discussed was recognizing teaching as a professional career requiring adequate salaries.

Janet Wheeler centered her information on the math and science program presenting both the pro and con of the situation.

Margaret Lee Johnson reported on the field of teaching connected with TV. One point made was that even though TV teaching can be used it can only supplement classroom teachers and will never replace teachers.

Bonnell Riley discussed how to select a career and how to tell whether you are qualified to be a teacher. If you have the ability to get along with people, emotional stability, healthy outlook mentally and physically and an interest in the things about you, you are probably qualified to teach.

Dimes for Freedom from Disease; Americans Protect Human Rights

Have you ever experienced the joy and satisfaction which comes from giving to others in need? If you have not, this week is an excellent time to contribute to the March of Dimes and take a part in the American will to wipe out the polio threat.

Through your generous attitude many polio victims have been helped and in more ways than one; but, money is still greatly needed. True, your money is no longer needed for spending in great amounts for research since the discovery of the Salk vaccine; but it is needed for helping those who were stricken before the vaccine was developed.

More money is still needed for rehabilitation. Your money may help some polio stricken person to gain confidence in himself, develop special skills of a physically handicapped person so that he can lead a useful life, provide education for the handicapped and help many to overcome their handicaps and learn to use their stricken bodies once again.

Of these purposes perhaps the most important one is the education of the physically handicapped. It has been proved in many school time after time that these people make the best students because they work harder to overcome their handicaps. The March of Dimes helps in this purpose by making possible careers for the handicapped through scholarships each year.

Remember, if you can give a dime, it multiplied by the millions of dimes of other people throughout the country, helps make an impressive total. Buy yourself a dime's worth of aid in man's never ceasing crusade against disease.

Eagle Views

The Canyon Eagles having compiled a 8 won, 11 lost record for the basketball season are improving. Last Friday, Dimmitt, leader in the district race, beat the Eagles by only 7 points, 51-44. Sonny Pitt was the leading scorer for Canyon with 19 points.

Oilton defeated the Eagles 53-39 with Leonard Miller scoring 31 of those points to lead the Eagles. Miller was the leading scorer in the game with Tulia which they won 49-36.

Dalhart defeated Canyon by one point last week, 48-47. Again Miller led the Eagles in scoring with 17 points.

So far this season Dory Funk is leading the Eagles in rebounds with 146. Pruett is leading the Eagles in scoring with 216 points.

composed of Betsy Callarman, Linda Green, Melba Haile, Jeanne Whinnery, Suzanne Lemons and Nedra Fanning gave the special music. They sang two numbers, "Hour of Prayer" and "Green Ca-

Third Year Girls Take Field Trip

Braving the cold, Homemaking III girls gasped with oh's and ah's as they looked at newly built homes in Amarillo Thursday as part of their interior decorating study.

Different types of houses were visited from small and simple to large and decorative. A two bedroom house furnished in early American furniture was the first seen. An unusual feature was wood paneling dividing the living room from the kitchen.

Three and four bedroom houses were viewed next. One had an extra special feature a small swimming pool in the backyard. The ceilings of this house were high and the beams were left showing as an added attraction.

Carpets were on the bedroom and living room floors of these three and four bedroom houses, and each had a gigantic fireplace in the living room for either gas or wood-burning logs. An intercom and radio combined was built into the wall of each room. Built in ovens were conveniences added to many of the new houses.

Homemaking girls interested in upholstering and drapery visited one of these workshops. They saw the materials for upholstering furniture and drapes, and the girls saw the making of these and the finished products. A furniture shop was also visited.

Those attending were Marilyn Davis, Katie Devenport, Joy Gray, Bernice Green, Melba Haile, Kay Kennedy, Nancy McCormick, Joyce Ricketts, Wanda Crutchfield, Jo Ann Prichard, Carolyn Campbell, Velma Frank, Pat Downing, Edwina Hugg, Barbara Myers, Nancy Whinnery, Sally Foster, Jeanne Whinnery, Mayla Atkinson, Ann Jarrett and Suzanne Lemons. Accompanying the girls was Mrs. Clara Long, instructor.

If You Are Absent It May Cost CHS

You may cost the people of this school district over $4,000 this coming school year. You could be the one to tip the average daily attendance into the red thus causing the state to withdraw its support from one of our teachers.

The Canyon Public School system takes pride in being one of the best schools in this area. To do this, they carry 11 extra teachers, that is, your parents and friends are paying the salaries of those teachers which are above the maximum number the state will pay.

Each school is entitled to one teacher for every 25 students in average daily attendance. Here in CHS we are on the verge of losing one teacher if our average daily attendance remains through the second semester as it has through the first. One person's absence could tip the scales.

If one teacher was dropped, no longer would there be 25 in a class but around 30 or 35. To maintain its high standing, our school system would have to stand the expense of that teacher. Thus school taxes would of necessity be raised.

During the first semester there was an average daily attendance of 289 as compared with an average enrollment of 310. In looking over the attendance records of the classes it is found that actually only a few people are causing the majority of the absences, but your careless absence added to other's could cause CHS to lose a teacher.

We need 95% in attendance or above, and yet for the first three six weeks the percentages were 95.30, 90.39 and 93.41.

Where your absences are most salient are in your grades. It is impossible to maintain even average grades with a string of absences accredited to your name. Mr. Miller said that time and time again frequent absences have been the cause for many withdrawals because a student gets so far behind that they cannot catch up on his work.

Your grades, and even more important, the amount of knowledge you gain from class attendance are bound to drop when you are absent. Each class period adds something which you miss and you cannot build an education when half of the building blocks are missing.

Remember, your attendance is important to yourself, your parents as taxpayers and to those who will follow.

This group also sang for the first student devotions held Monday, Jan. 20.

The message emphasized the need of following the road signs and rules of life just as we should obey the road signs when driving. Lloyd Mann, CCYC president and school chaplain, presided.

Hardaway Wins In FHA Contest

Patricia Hardaway, senior band drum major, recently placed highest in CHS in the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow contest. She also holds the Future Homemaker State Degree.

In competition with some 20 CHS senior girls, Pat took an hour long test, both objective and essay, which covered all phases of manners, social graces and homemaking, and she placed first. Her examination paper will be entered in competition to name Texas' candidate for the All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow.

Each state Homemaker of Tomorrow winner will receive a $1,500 scholarship and a trip with her school advisor to Washington, D. C., colonial Williamsburg, Va., and New York City.

Last fall, the Future Homemaker State Degree was conferred upon Pat. She flew to Dallas for the occasion.

Pat is a member of the National Honor Society and FHA. She has been a nominee for Homecoming Queen, Band Queen and Halloween Queen.

Music and reading are her hobbies. In addition to the clarinet, she plays the piano. Like most seniors, she never has trouble keeping busy between school, hobbies and church. "Usually I am too busy," she said.

Her plans are to attend WT and major in some branch of business or psychology. "Psychology would certainly offer an interesting field," she commented.

Mr. E. L. Hardaway, Pat's father, is a trucker. Pat's mother cares for the family and home.

The unknown author of the following words has given all Christian young people some serious matters for consideration.

His title is "Things I Wish I Had Known Before I Was 21." These are the things:

"That a person's habits are mighty hard to change after he is 21."

"That things worthwhile require time, patience and work."

"That value of absolute truthfulness is everything."

"The folly of never taking other people's advice."

"That what my mother wanted me to do was right."

"That my dad was not an old fogey at all."

"The greatness of the opportunity of serving a fellow man."

"That Christ wants me to enjoy the fullest in life."

"That to enjoy the fullest in life I must be completely surrendered to His will."

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

The land you have in the Conservation Reserve of the Soil Bank Program must be seeded to grass between Jan. 1 and May 15 in a good dead litter of a previous cover crop. The seeding should be done with a grass-seed drill, preferably between March 15 and May 15.

The grasses to be used and the seeding rate of pure live seed per acre are: Blue grama 1.5, Buffalo 5, Western Wheat 6, Crested Wheat 6, Side Oats grama 2.5, Indian grass 2, Switch grass 2, Weeping Love 1, and Sand Love 1.

Buffalo and Side Oats grama, Indian and Switch grass should only be used in a mixture with other grasses. Buffalo grass should not make up over 25 percent of any mixture used.

In this county Blue grama should be the main grass that is planted. On mixed or shallow-land sites, Side Oats grama is a good grass to use in the mixture. The wheat grasses could be used where the land receives extra runoff water from adjoining pastures and fields. Indian and Switch grasses are used on light soils.

After the grass is planted, it may become necessary to mow or spray for weed control. The young seedlings should be given every chance to survive.

For information on seeding rates, dates and mixtures contact your Soil Conservation Service technicians, County Agent or ASC office secretary. These people will be glad to help you on your grass seeding problems.

The following are some mixtures that could be used. Notice that the total of all grasses in each mixture equals 100 percent.

No. 1
Buffalo 20% 1 PLS per acre
Blue grama 80% 1.2 PLS per acre
No. 2
Blue grama 60% .9 PLS per acre
Side Oats grama 20% .5 PLS per acre
Buffalo 20% 1.0 PLS per acre
No. 3
Blue grama 70% 1.05 PLS per acre
Side Oats grama 10% .25 PLS per acre
Buffalo 15% .75 PLS per acre
Western Wheat 5% .3 PLS per acre

Other mixtures are acceptable. These mixtures were used to demonstrate how to arrive at the correct mixture of grasses to seed per acre on a pure live seed basis.

The next meeting will be with Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Campbell Feb. 8.

AT LEAST CO-OPERATIVE

"The maid is reading our mail, dear," said his wife.
"How do you know, honey?" asked the husband.
"Because," replied the woman of the house, "she went and baked a birthday cake right after the mailman brought you a greeting card from Aunt Alice."

Roseberry Talks For Canyon AAUW

Robert Roseberry, civil defense director for the Amarillo area, will speak to the AAUW at 1:30 p. m. Saturday in the Blue Room of the WT cafeteria.

Roseberry will stress Home Protection in his address, and will distribute materials which contain precise instructions for disaster relief in case of tornadoes or other disasters, as well as enemy attack.

Anyone interested in civil defense is invited to attend the meeting. His talk will be preceded by a luncheon at 12:30 p. m. and guests are welcome for the luncheon or for the talk alone at 1:30.

So that there will be material for everyone who attends, AAUW requests that reservations be made with Mrs. Geraldine Green, OL 5-4405, or with Dr. Hattie Anderson, OL 5-2208.

We had planned to avoid the topic of current fashions. Not through indifference; it was more a childlike hope that if we wouldn't pay them any attention, they might go away.

But the West Texas girl who posed impishly for photographers last week wearing a gunny sack slip-on she made for 90 cents gives us courage to face up.

"Variations of the Unfitted Look Will Predominate Wardrobes This Spring," a recent headline announced. Such terms as the "body-suggesting rather than body-defining" ensemble, "the easy over-blowse" ran through the story. It spoke of "wonderful flashing hues, such as orange, ultra violet" (whistling for courage?).

The spouse hove into view carrying firewood as we finished reading this paean to spring styles and darned if he didn't have the look! He was wearing a bright red slip-over sweat shirt ("the cover-up-costume") with one sleeve ripped about six inches ("a teasingly-easy line"). His gray denim slacks had "gentle fullness over the hips." (The one characteristic they all share, said the article, is to touch the body at the hips). Yes, his was definitely the "unfitted silhouette."

We're going to give this new trend plenty of time to find itself before going off the deep end for it. We fell for it once before — back in the late '20s. Our entire trousseau (modest, but it was all we had) was made up of shorter-hemline, hip-banded dresses. The next year, they disappeared in favor of long graceful evening dresses and tailored suits. We say "they" disappeared; ours didn't. We continued to wear them until the budget caught up with Dame Fashion. So, like the writer said, we may "have to see the new silhouette worn by others before it begins to look attractive."
